

VACATURE NOVEMBER 2011

CREA THERA is looking for 2 music therapists

CREA THERA, a Belgian-Bosnian creative and therapeutic organization is working since 2008 in Srebrenica (Bosnia in Herzegovina). There still exists a heavy psychosocial burden in this hardened society. Fifteen years after the tragic end of civil war many people- children and adult - still are suffering in many ways.

CREA THERA offers creative and therapeutic activities for children, women and men and also started training and coaching project for local co-workers who will continue the creative therapeutic work.

About the job

- Offering creative and therapeutic activities for children and adults in Srebrenica
- Developing a therapeutic climate in the region of Srebrenica
- Developing of music therapy in BIH

Profile

- Qualified music therapist
- Two years of job-experience is a plus
- Job supervision and group supervision
- Understanding and speaking of language is a plus

Necessary qualities and skills

- Enthusiastic and committed
- Independent, efficient and stress resistant
- Awareness of own limits and limitations
- Good health - Strong self-respect
- Flexible and resilient - team player

Our offer

- Contribute to an important community-healing project: building-up a sphere of psychosocial and music therapeutic assistance in the local community of children, youngsters, adults, elderly.
- Travelling allowance – board and lodging (expense allowance) if possible
- Volunteers contract (travelling insurance)

Interested?

- Check www.creathera.com
- Send a motivation email with short CV and Photo to tomazz_deleu@hotmail.com (tel.00387-62108270 in Sarajevo)